Emau Hill is about 400km almost due North of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, not far after Segera on the road to Tanga. Leaving Dar very early (before 6am) can help to avoid some of the traffic on the roads and make for a great sunrise around the Ruvu River (and endemic weavers).

- To drive, take the Bagamoyo road out of Dar es Salaam, and continue for around 4-5 hours through Bagamoyo to Msata (turn right).
- At Segera (turn right to towards Tanga) and drive 30km to Muheza
- We are 40km from Muheza.
- In Muheza follow signs for Amani Nature Reserve.
- Go through Bombani and after Kisiwani (about 1h) enter the Amani Nature Reserve at Zigi where any entry fees are paid.
- Climb through a series of hairpin bends towards Amani.
- Do NOT take the right turn to Derema,
- Go through Amani towards Kwamkoro and, 1 1/2km after ANR HQ,
- Carry on past HQ for about 5 -10 minutes (depending on your vehicle)
- Sign on right pointing right to EMAU HILL 3km.
- Take this narrow track through forest and farms, cross a small river, and fish ponds
- Through forest and up a hill to Emau Hill – Amani Forest Camp.

Sometimes, in the wet season the road is not suitable for non-4×4 vehicles. During these times, you can leave your car at the park gate and we can transfer you to the camp.

Karibu!
